CHURCH DIFFICULTY. - A few days since the Eutaw Place Baptist Church unanimously resolved to increase the salary of their pastor. Rev. Dr. Fuller, the popular head of the church, wrote a note declining their generosity, at the same time expressing his sincere gratitude. On Wednesday night there was a large abdience, who remained after the usual sermon and benediction, and after the pastor had left they unanimously resolved that the church insist upon the pastor complying with their resolution. We never heard of such a church
